Requirements for volunteers

The most important responsibility for a volunteer is their duty of care to children. All children and young people have the right to a safe, productive and positive learning environment, and all workers have the right to a safe, protective and positive working environment.

- Respecting the rights of children means volunteers must:
 - Refer all student concerns or behaviour issues to the nominated school contact person
 - Comply with check in/check out procedures for volunteers eg arrival, departure, name badge
 - Notify the school as early as possible if they are unable to fulfil their volunteer commitment
 - Raise criticisms or concerns in line with the school Grievance Procedure and Complaint Procedure
- Respecting the rights of children means volunteers must not:
 - Work unsupervised with students
 - Encourage affection from or dependency in students, eg. by giving presents
 - Discuss information about the young people they are working with, or the young person's family, outside of the volunteering program
 - Exchange personal details, including phone numbers, social media contacts, email or home addresses

School responsibilities to volunteers

- The school will
 - Ensure volunteers are supported with appropriate training
 - Provide each volunteer with a role description

- Ensure volunteers are appropriately screened as per Department for Education (DfE) Volunteer Policy
- Facilitate the RAN-EC Induction for volunteers
- Keep accurate records of volunteers details including training and work details
- Match the volunteer with a role
- Provide the volunteer with a school contact person for direct contact, questions and support
- Ensure volunteers are aware of site work health and safety procedures
- Meet their duty of care to students by not leaving a volunteer to work unsupervised with students

 - Fails to follow requirements outlined in the Volunteer Policy and mentor core training
 - Behaves in a manner deemed inappropriate or improper towards students, parents or staff
 - Repeatedly fails to meet commitments without notice to the school
